LABOR & UNITED WAY

TOGETHER HELPING FAMILIES. TOGETHER BUILDING COMMUNITY.

- 550+ union families experiencing unemployment or life crises are helped every year with direct assistance totaling more than $100,000 and community referrals thanks to the Labor and United Way partnership.
- Union leaders and community services committees take part in Union Community Activist Network (UCAN) trainings to learn about valuable community resources to help their members.
- 35 Union leaders provide direction to United Way by serving on the Board of Directors and Regional Auxiliary Boards.
- United Way partners with the Building Union Diversity (BUD) program to prepare, recruit and retain more women and minorities for union construction apprenticeship programs.
- Since the start of the COVID-19 crisis in our region, United Way has invested more than $1.2 million in emergency funding to local nonprofits helping families with housing and food access, ulitilty assistance, childcare and mental health support.
- Five Union members work full-time as United Way Labor Liaisons to help union families and strengthen Labor and community ties.
- United Way serves Metropolitan St. Louis in 16 counties in Missouri and Illinois and helps more than one million people each year.
- 2-1-1 is a free, easy, confidential way for people to call for health and human service assistance from professionals 24 hours a day. In 2019, United Way 2-1-1 received more than 116,000 requests for help with basic needs in the St. Louis region. The top requests were for utility assistance and housing and shelter.
- Call (314) 539-4189 to reach the United Way Labor Helpline.
