

LABOR & UNITED WAY

TOGETHER HELPING FAMILIES. TOGETHER BUILDING COMMUNITY.

- The United Way Labor Department Direct Assist Program continues to help families with utilities and housing assistance along with providing community referrals thanks to the AFL-CIO and United Way Partnership.
- 26 Union leaders provide direction to United Way by serving on the Board of Directors and Regional Auxiliary Boards.
- United Way partners with the Building Union Diversity (BUD) program to prepare, recruit and retain more women and minorities for union construction apprenticeship programs.
- United Way supports community collaboration efforts to address the opioid epidemic, ranging from worksite education to pregnant moms needing treatment assistance.
- Five Union members work full-time as United Way Labor Liaisons to help union families and strengthen Labor and community ties.
- United Way serves the Grater St. Louis region in 16 counties in Missouri and Illinois and helps more than one million people each year.
- Contacting your local United Way labor liaison is a free, simple, and confidential way to connect union members who qualify for assistance during a time of economic hardship. Call the Labor Direct Assistance Hotline at 314-539-4189.
