

LABOR & UNITED WAY

AFL-CIO
COMMUNITY SERVICES

TOGETHER HELPING FAMILIES. TOGETHER BUILDING COMMUNITY.

- The United Way Labor Department Direct Assist Program continues to help families with utilities and housing assistance along with providing community referrals thanks to the AFL-CIO and United Way Partnership.
- 24 Union leaders provide direction to United Way by serving on the Board of Directors and Regional Auxiliary Boards.
- United Way partners with the Building Union Diversity (BUD) program to prepare, recruit and retain more women and people of color for union construction apprenticeship programs.
- United Way supports community collaboration efforts to address the opioid epidemic, ranging from worksite education to pregnant moms needing treatment assistance.
- Five Union members work full-time as United Way Labor Liaisons to help union families and strengthen Labor and community ties.
- United Way serves the Grater St. Louis region in 16 counties in Missouri and Illinois and helps more than one million people each year.
- Contacting your local United Way labor liaison is a free, simple, and confidential way to connect union members who qualify for assistance during a time of economic hardship. Call the Labor Direct Assistance Hotline at 314-539-4189.

See reverse for listing of 160+ partner agencies receiving United Way funding.

United Way partners with nonprofits that create equitable conditions and opportunities across our region. We fund more than 160 nonprofits to sustain a strong safety net and make sure local people's needs can be met. As partner nonprofits, these agencies deliver programs and services so all people across our region can succeed and thrive.
