

LABOR + UNITED WAY OF GREATER ST. LOUIS

TOGETHER HELPING FAMILIES | TOGETHER BUILDING COMMUNITY

- The United Way Labor Department Direct Assist Program continues to help families with utilities and housing assistance along with providing community referrals thanks to the AFL-CIO and United Way Partnership.
- 21 Union leaders provide direction to United Way by serving on the Board of Directors and Regional Auxiliary Boards.
- United Way partners with the Missouri Works Initiative's Apprentice Ready programs (Construction and Manufacturing) to help create an industry-recognized entry point into the trades, creating a more skilled and equitable workforce.
- United Way supports community collaboration efforts to address the opioid epidemic, which include worksite education and UCAN training.
- Five Union members work full-time as United Way Labor Liaisons to help union families and strengthen Labor and community ties.
- United Way serves the Greater St. Louis region in 16 counties in Missouri and Illinois and helps more than one million people each year.
- Contacting your local United Way labor liaison is a free, simple, and confidential way to connect union members who qualify for assistance during a time of economic hardship.

Call (314) 539-4189 to reach the United Way Labor Direct Assistance Helpline.
